

WELCOME TO THE (UNOFFICIAL) SITE!

This website is independently-created and maintained by long-time James Burke enthusiast and professional web-developer Tom Palmer (with a bit of early help from the Discovery Channel) and currently contains a variety of information about Mr. Burke and his offerings. There are links to a number of other websites, plus biographical materials, press releases and product descriptions. Browse around and feel free to let me (the webmaster) know of any new information that can and should be included in this site. I can be reached at info@palmersguide.com.

Go see James Burke! (Nov. 27, 2001) - Hauie Lin, a conscientious marketing associate at Royce Carlton, Inc., has sent me Mr. Burke's speaking schedule for the foreseeable future. Click here to have a look. Thanks, Hauie!

A personal update from Mr. Burke: (Feb. 23, 2001) - I'm just started on a new book due out in late 2002, called "Out of Nowhere". There is also a book coming out of MIT this Fall ("Inventing America") to which I am a major contributor. I am at present 2 years into the creation of a large interactive knowledge web. Depending on how funding proceeds, it should go online (free) in late 2002. (Thank you, Mr. Burke!)

Mr. Burke also included a complete list of all his various professional activities and works.

A follow-up from Mr. Burke (June 22, 2001) - The title of my next book ("Out of Nowhere" has been changed to "1+1=3: The Accidental Modern World."

For those fans who have e-mailed me (the webmaster) regarding how and where to purchase Mr. Burkes videos, books and audiotapes, you will be somewhat happy to learn that many of them can now be obtained directly through this site. For descriptions and ordering, simply click on "Books, Games & Videos By James Burke" below or click here for a handy index.

Notice #1 - (VIDEOS) James Burke videos are now starting to appear back on-line for sale. My preferred vendor is Ambrose Video. They have been kind enough to create a James Burke section on their Documentary Video site for us. Please give their website a visit if you are looking for Connections, Connections 2, Connections 3 or After The Warming.

Notice #2 - (USED VIDEOS) A growing number of people (mostly teachers) are looking for copies of The Day The Universe Changed. If you have any original store-bought copies of these video programs that you would be willing to sell, please e-mail me at "info@palmersguide.com" and I will post or pass along this information. However, I cannot deal with homemade (bootleg) duplicates of commercial products or past television broadcasts. That would be an infringement of the copyright laws. Thanks!

Recently several considerate people have e-mailed in to say that SVE Media - Churchill Video carries the tapes for around $750.00.

Search for James Burke on the web: - I have noticed a small number of Burke related pages that pop up on the web from time to time and vanish after a few months. To take a look at these offerings and commentaries, I suggest that you use the major search engines and use the keywords "James Burke" and "Connections" together. Happy Hunting.
