We can only work toward the horizonS. You can SEE it almost every day — a world moving toward Knowledge and Technology. It’s in the horizonS. The danger of too much planning unimagined future mental radar news sources I follow on Twitter yesterdayS. Unimagined futures if you look for it. Making a living is no longer enough, work also has to make you feel good. Freedom is the heaviest burden laid on man. Freedom is the heaviest burden laid on man. Making a living is no longer enough, work also has to make you feel good.

We know only two things about the future. It cannot be known. It is not going to happen the same way now how it was in the past. What is already clear, however, is that the emerging knowledge society and knowledge economy will be radically different from the society and economy of the late twentieth century.
